CLEAN VACANT LOTS

SAYS J. W. PEARSON, CHAIRMAN OF VACANT LOT COMMITTEE GLENDALE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Now is the time to clean your vacant lots. The city trustees passed ordinance No. 244, which becomes effective October 25th, under which they will clean all vacant lots and charge it against the property. The approximate cost will be from $1.00 to $1.50 for a fifty-foot lot.

We should support our city trustees in this, and if you wish to save the expense on your lot and save the city the time and expense of sending out notices, get busy now and clean your lot.

If however, you want the city to do the work, notify City Manager T. W. Watson at once, and the work will be done.

As a matter of civic pride, the committee wants the vacant lots beautified as well as cleaned, and hopes you will sow seeds of flowers that will add color and fragrance to our home city.

If you will let us use your lot, there are many deserving boys who will raise potatoes on them. Phone 740J if you wish to help the cause in this way.

WASH MASS MEETING

Property owners of Glendale, Tropico and Casa Verdugo are invited to be present at a mass meeting to be held in the Union high school Monday evening, October 12, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the importance of having the Verdugo wash improved under the county act as outlined in proceedings already commenced.

The wash problem is an important one in this community and the improvement of the same is not likely to meet with opposition by property owners when they understand the conditions. Persons who feel that it is unjust to have a general assessment for the improvement of the wash are especially invited to be present at Monday evening's meeting.

O. A. LANE, Pres. Board
Trustees of the City of Glendale.

ANTWERP IN RUINS

Unofficial reports come that Antwerp has fallen. At any rate the bombardment has continued at a fearful rate, German shells showering the city at the rate of twenty per second.

According to Berlin papers Germany is preparing to begin an attack on England, using Belgium as the base of operations.

Paris reports nothing new except that they have captured 1600 prisoners in the region of the Roye the past few days.

There are said to be half a million Belgian refugees in Holland and two thousand to three thousand fleeing daily to England. Those remaining are said to be on the verge of starvation.

Russian reports are insisting that they are pressing the Germans and Austrians hard, while Berlin reports the complete rout of the invading Russian army.

PARTY FOR DEPARTING FRIEND

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the current week was the surprise party given in honor of Mr. Curtis Johnson, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Bede A. Johnson of West Third street, who will leave tonight for Goat Island to enter the United States training station there.

The merry event, which was a complete surprise to the honoree, was given in the home of Miss Jenny Lacy, 135 South Kenwood street, wherein white roses and fern were arranged with artistic effectiveness.

Games, after which a midnight collation was served, were greatly enjoyed by the Misses Gertrude Wilson, Jenny Lacy, Dorothy Lee, Helen Wright, Ruth Pierce, Gladys Anderson, Catherine Corning, Gail Hamilton, Margaret McOmber, Grace Shropshire, and Messrs. Harry Francy, Raymond Lusby, Ralph Lusby, George Hastings, Albert Ginn, Frank Butterfield, Mark Francy, Harold Salisbury and James McBride, all of whom presented the honoree with a handsome fountain pen as a farewell reminder of the many friends whom he leaves behind.

NO TRUSTEES' MEETING

Monday, October 12, 1914, being a legal holiday, there will be no meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale on that evening. The official meeting will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 13.

O. A. LANE,
Pres. Board of Trustees.

WATSON AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Many have looked forward with great anticipation to the coming of Rev. J. F. Watson to deliver his justly famous lecture-sermon in which he tells with remarkable fascination and vividness the account of his recent escape from the war zone. From the first time this lecture was delivered before the Baptist ministers of Los Angeles and surrounding towns, Dr. Watson has been in nightly demand. Lyceums would give almost any sum to engage him for the lecture platform, but he is not open for such work. We are fortunate, however, to secure his services for Glendale at so early a date. An auditorium seating thousands would not be any too large (fifteen hundred heard the lecture at Long Beach), and it will be wise to be on hand promptly at 7:30. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Polite ushers. Good congregational singing. Mr. Cunningham, baritone; Miss Salisbury, piano. Violin solo.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEES REPORT

FRIDAY NIGHT'S MEETING A VERY INTERESTING ONE—SEWARD C. SIMONS GIVES ADDRESS OPPOSING COUNTY CONSOLIDATION AMENDMENTS—PROMOTERS OF NOMEL COMPANY MAKE TEMPTING PROPOSITION TO THE CITIZENS OF GLENDALE

The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening was one of unusual interest, as a number of questions of importance came up for consideration and all committees gave reports showing that every department of the chamber is hard at work.

President J. N. McGillis presided and after the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary, H. A. Wilson, Mr. Seward C. Simons of South Pasadena, secretary of the Inter-City Commission an organization formed for the purpose of co-operation between the different communities in the San Gabriel valley in matters affecting a number of the communities, spoke. Mr. Simons spoke on the consolidation amendments, Nos. 19 and 21. He explained wherein the amendments had been framed entirely for the benefit of Los Angeles and San Francisco and not for the good of the cities they might seek to annex. Mr. Simons spoke convincingly and at the close of his talk a vote was taken resulting unanimously against supporting the two consolidation amendments, which will appear on the ballot at the November election.

After Mr. Simons' speech the regular business of the chamber was taken up and reports of committees called for.

E. U. Emery, chairman of the water committee, said he had learned that the city had taken over the Glendale Consolidated and the Miradero systems, and that everything was working out as had been planned by the water committee and the board of trustees.

J. F. Lilly and A. M. Brooks, members of the publicity committee, gave reports in regard to the work of the committee, stating that five thousand 22-page cards were being circulated and advised that copies of the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News be circulated as a medium of advertising.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, chairman of the railroad committee, not being present, Mr. McGillis spoke for him, reporting that the committee had been endeavoring to obtain interviews with Mr. Pontius of the Pacific Electric company relative to the reduction of fares between Los Angeles and Glendale. The committee expects to be able to report at the next meeting.

The membership committee presented the names of Fred S. Meneley, Attorney Owen Emery and R. J. Black for membership.

At the request of the chairman of the park committee, M. P. Harrison, the report of the committee was given by Rev. B. A. Johnson.

Rev. Johnson read the following report:

We, the members of the park committee of the chamber of commerce, respectfully submit the following as a supplementary report to our former report:

We now desire to recommend the entire block bounded by Broadway, Jackson, Third and Kenwood streets, estimated cost approximately $65,000, instead of the former report, which recommended that part of the block back to two hundred feet from Third street.

We also desire to say that this proposition of the entire block has received the endorsement of the executive board and civics committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the endorsement of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations. Of the latter, all the members but five signed the petition of endorsement, and these five were not reached in time for this meeting. All of the executive board of the Tuesday Afternoon Club signed.

We also desire to recommend that the Chamber of Commerce call for a public mass meeting during the early part of November, at which time the proposition shall be open for discussion by the citizens of Glendale.

We also report that through a subcommittee we procured a price on the sanitarium block of $90,000, but consider it too high to receive our endorsement and recommendation, in view of the price of the other block.

M. P. HARRISON,
HERMAN NELSON,
W. W. McELROY,
E. H. WILLISFORD,
BEDE A. JOHNSON.

The report was accompanied by resolutions from the executive board of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the Parent-Teacher Federation, endorsing the report, which was adopted by the chamber. Mr. Harrison, the chairman of the committee, thanked the Tuesday Afternoon Club, the Parent-Teacher Federation and all others who assisted the committee in preparing the report.

The report of the committee was adopted with the understanding that a mass meeting will be called early in November.

Representatives of the Nomel company, which is organized for the purpose of manufacturing pure foods, were present and addressed the meeting at length in an interesting manner.

M. Martin Kallman, an efficiency man of national reputation, explained that the Nomel company contemplates establishing their administration building in Southern California at an expense of over $2,000,000, and Glendale has been selected as one of the suitable sites. One of the administration buildings would be in the form of an auditorium with a seating capacity for 5000 people. In addition to this building, there would be many other buildings to be used for laboratory and instruction purposes. There would be a musical building equipped with a pipe organ purchased at an expense of $20,000. The building would be substantially and neatly constructed, and the surrounding grounds would be a beautiful park. These buildings would be erected by the company and the grounds and buildings would be cared for by the company.

The city would be required to furnish the land upon which the buildings are to be erected, about twenty acres being required.

Mr. Meleck, who is interested in the Nomel company, also addressed the chamber, explaining in his opening remarks that his attention was first called to Glendale upon seeing a copy of the anniversary number of the Evening News just recently published.

On motion, President McGillis appointed a committee of five persons to confer with the Nomel company. The members of the committee are E. U. Emery, H. Nelson, H. A. Wilson, O. A. Lane and J. W. Preston.

The committee is holding a meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock to inquire into the company's plans.

Meeting adjourned.

EVENING OF CARDS

About seventy-five guests enjoyed the card party given Friday evening by the St. Margaret Girls in the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Crampton, 1011 Chestnut street, who generously opened their doors for the occasion.

Cosmos nodded their pink-petaled heads from everywhere, huge showers, together with delicate foliage, having been effectively arranged in the rooms in which the card tables were arranged.

Five Hundred was the chosen diversion and as holders of highest scores, Mrs. R. Carvel, Miss George Duffet, Mr. D. H. Smith and Mr. Jos. L. Stagner received handsome prizes.

Light refreshments concluded the evening's enjoyment and the merry throng dispersed in the happiest of spirits.

Mrs. Crampton and daughter, Miss Grace Crampton, assisted the St. Margaret Girls in receiving and entertaining their many guests.

The rest of Iowa should come to California next year and meet the Iowa-Californians at the expositions.

MUSIC SECTION MEETS AFTER SUMMER REST

The music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club met for the first time this year with the chairman, Mrs. Freeman Kelley, 532 Orange Grove avenue, at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. A very good attendance enjoyed the interesting meeting and great enthusiasm was displayed over the coming year's study and musical work.

At 4 o'clock tea and wafers were served by the charming little hostess and 'twas then suggestions for the Christmas musical to be given Friday afternoon, Dec. 11, were made by those present.

MANY HEARD DEBATE

The public debate on the proposed eight-hour law between J. C. Beldin of Glendale and the Rev. J. W. Williams of Los Angeles was largely attended, Mr. Wright of Los Angeles acting as chairman. Both speakers won considerable applause and the debate was exceptionally interesting.

Pumpkin pie is not the original "yellow peril," by any means.

GLEANERS ENTERTAIN

PENNY SOCIAL HELD AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IS A HUGE SUCCESS

The "penny social" given by the Gleaners' class of the Congregational church at the church Friday evening certainly gathered in the pennies, for the young ladies in charge netted thirty-five dollars.

Everything, including entrance and exit, cost one penny, and between two and three hundred people attended and patronized the various booths, containing six hundred articles of fancywork, magazines, seeds and bulbs, candy, grapejuice, baked goods, fruitade, ice cream and Japanese tea, all of which could be purchased for the small sum of a penny. Besides the above, there was a story-telling corner and a picture show.

A free program, which consisted of piano solos by the Misses Carol Willisford, Audrey Hall and Gertrude Gillette; readings by Mrs. E. H. Willisford and the Misses Merva Scott, Marcella Miller and Edith Schuyler, and piano duets by Miss Dorothy Bonnell and Jack Jenkins, was given and greatly enjoyed in the church hall, wherein a wild profusion of pink and white blossoms and streamers prevailed. These are the class colors and were loyally endorsed as a decorative motif by the Gleaners' class teacher, Miss Emma Adams, and the following class members: The Misses Carol Willisford, Audrey Hall, Gertrude Gillette, Marcella Miller, Merva Scott, Dorothy Bonnell, Edith Schuyler, Margaret Pardon, Mildred Swenson, Eleanore Gregg, Helen Boorman, Millicent Alvord, Katherine Atkinson, Helen Robertson, Jessie Gregg, Helen Beach, Dorothy Sherman, Alma Pardon, Erma Patterson, Edna Farner, Helen Svenson, Lois Schuyler, Evelyn Ashman and Marguerite Paul, all of whom extend many thanks in appreciation of the great interest and patronage of those who attended and lent their most able assistance in making this third annual event such a splendid success.

MISS MIDCALF SURPRISED

Miss Clara Midcalf of 118 North Brand boulevard was tendered a very happy surprise in her home Friday evening, when a number of young people clustered about her door and demanded admittance. With them they brought cheerful greetings and delicious refreshments, the latter being brought forth after a siege of merry games and chatter and generously served to the Misses Lavina Banker, Margaret Lusby, Mable Dunham, Lena Mae Brice, Helen McMullin, Margaret Gregg, Daphne Burlingham, Addie Midcalf, Alice Midcalf, and Messrs. Robert Goudie, Everette Richardson, Julian Ames, Emerson Padelford, Milton Brown, William Reese, James Lyons, Walter Beach, Lawrence Davis, E. M. Polley and Holman Midcalf.

PURCHASES NEW RESIDENCE IN GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pence of Los Angeles purchased the beautiful five-room residence of Mr. Van Cleave, located at 1020 Maple street, last Wednesday, the deal being made through the C. H. Henry real estate agency. Mr. and Mrs. Pence will move to Glendale the first of the week.

NEW HOME COMPLETE

The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Peters, which has been in the process of building for several months at 1525 Myrtle street, is now complete and Mr. and Mrs. Peters have come from Los Angeles to make their home among us. They will be warmly welcomed as a worthy addition to our citizenship.

END NOT IN SIGHT

In yesterday's Evening News a seven-line paragraph headed "End in Sight," copied from the San Diego Union, by error slipped into our columns. Pinchot was quoted as intimating that the end of the Progressive party has come.

The publisher of The News does not stand for statements made by radical partisan papers such as the San Diego Union. All political parties have a mission to perform, and it is a well-known fact that the Progressive party in California, with such leaders as Governor Johnson, Eshleman and Heney, is far from being down and out.

Worthy river and harbor improvement projects should have first and only attention in the apportioning of the $20,000,000 just appropriated by congress. This is a good time to discourage and discountenance- "pork barrel" schemes.

SPEAKERS ENTHUSE

THE INTERMEDIATE PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The first Intermediate Parent-Teacher Association meeting of the new year was held at the Third street school Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, and as usual was presided over by the president, Dr. Jessie A. Russell.

Each of the following speakers, Mrs. Estelle Lawton-Lindsey, Mrs. Charles E. Hutchinson, Miss Litta Belle Hibben and Dr. Russell, handled the various subjects pertaining to the propositions to be voted on Nov. 3 in a forceful and concise manner. Mrs. Lindsey, who is a candidate for the assembly from the sixty-first district, was enthusiastically received and made a most favorable impression upon her large audience, many of whom went to her after the meeting and pledged their most loyal support.

The following appointments of chairmen of committees were made: Courtesy committee, Mrs. Greely Kolts; emergency committee, Mrs. C. L. Peckham; after which the meeting adjourned for a short reception to enable those present to meet and talk personally with the speakers.

Forty-five new members joined the association Friday, this fact of course adding to the interest and enthusiasm of the members and workers.

Friday's meeting was preceded by an executive board session, when matters pertaining to the association were discussed. The board voted on financial assistance and agreed to furnish cement boxes for flowers and wire for vines in an endeavor to beautify the school grounds.

Plans for the next regular meeting will include a symposium of short talks by local mothers on the "Boy Problem in Glendale." This promises to be one of the most interesting Parent-Teacher meetings ever held in Glendale.

AN ENJOYABLE HAYRIDE

The Baraca class of the First M. E. church gave a very enjoyable entertainment Friday night in the form of a hayride. A large auto truck was well filled with happy young people, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tarr and Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDonald.

After leaving Glendale they journeyed to Newhall, where they had a "wienie roast" and toasted marshmallows. Music furnished by Mr. Melvin Wood upon his Ukulele was greatly appreciated by all.

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITOR

As a courtesy to Miss Ethel Potter, who is visiting here from New York City, Mrs. Pierre V. Potter of 1541 Pioneer drive entertained most delightfully with a thimble tea one afternoon recently.

The home was abloom with bright cut flowers, cosmos and foliage having graced the living-room, while in the dining-room, where 5 o'clock tea was poured, roses of unusual fragrance and beauty were used.

Besides needlework and merry chatter, the guests were most appreciatively entertained with piano and vocal solos by Mrs. Ira D. Vinton and Mrs. Charles Van Dyke, respectively. Others who were invited to meet this charming young visitor, who is delighted with California, were Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mrs. Horace G. Hosford, Mrs. A. D. Smith, Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. W. A. Van Dyke, Mrs. A. R. Hoagland, Mrs. John Andrea, Mrs. Henry Wilson, Mrs. Mathews and Miss Marie Albers.

PRESBYTERY RECOMMENDS NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

The Philadelphia Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church at its quarterly meeting in Philadelphia last week adopted a resolution recommending the use throughout the ensuing year of advertisements in the newspapers in recognition of the value of publicity as a help for church work.

Wall street might put padlocks on its doors and retire permanently and yet the nation would continue to flourish.

There is a note of something bordering on self-satisfaction in Missouri's announcement that from a planting of 87,000 acres in potatoes a few short months ago, she now expects to gather 4,400,000 bushels. The rest of the country congratulates her, of course, but would like to know how she feels about the price per peck.

TROPICO

The annual inspection of N. P. Banks Woman's Relief Corps was held at the G. A. R. hall Friday afternoon and was of exceptional interest from the fact that the inspection was conducted by Mrs. Lou Tripp, department president, who thus honored N. P. Banks Corps. Mrs. Mayme G. Pollock, Corps president, and her efficient corps of officers, exemplified the beautiful ritualistic work of the order in such an impressive manner as to receive the commendation of Mrs. Tripp and the other department officers who accompanied the department president. Among the visitors were prominent members of Bartlett-Logan, Kenesaw, Stanton and Robley Evans Corps; also Mrs. Jennie L. Berry, a member of Robley Evans and department patriotic instructor, and also a member of the executive committee. Presentations were made Mrs. Tripp, Mrs. Berry, also Mrs. Delia Hapgood, member of N. P. Banks, who was elected department chaplain; Mrs. Sara Martin, past department treasurer, and Mrs. Mayme G. Pollock, Corps president. Following the reception, a dainty luncheon was served, at which Mrs. Pollock and her officers were hostesses. A number of the members of N. P. Banks Post were present to enjoy the afternoon's program.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city will tender a farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. Carnes in the social hall of the church Tuesday evening. ELECTION DATE DRAWING NEAR

Only four weeks until the date of the election at which many important questions are to be decided. November 3, election day, should be looked forward to as a day of peculiar significance.

Well-meaning people make the grave mistake of being negligent when it comes to the question of their exercising the right of franchise.

Repeatedly we hear fault being found with laws that have become laws on account of the carelessness of the very ones finding fault.

The non-voter is as dangerous to good government as the non-intelligent voter. What we urge is the importance of voting and voting intelligently. There is no excuse now-a-days for anyone to go to the polls without being fairly well informed on the questions submitted on the ballot.

ETIQUETE ON THE STREET CARS EXPLAINED

The Advocate is just in receipt of a dainty missive, written apparently by one of the gentler sex, asking if we cannot print some pointers on "street car etiquette," and although this request is somewhat foreign to conducting a great newspaper, we are going to sharpen our editorial quill and hand out the following suggestions:

In signaling a street car, do not stand in between the rails, as the roadbed is liable to be awfully mussed up if you should be so fortunate as to not step out of the way in time when the car came bowling merrily along.

Unless the conductor comes and bawls out "fare," do not thrust your nickel at him as though you feared the railroad company might go into the hands of a receiver.

Always take up as much room as you can in a street car. The further you can thrust your feet out into the aisle, the quicker the other passengers will start to make your acquaintance.

When the conductor asks, "Beg pardon, but did I get your fare?" beam pleasantly upon him and tell him that you don't know whether he gets it or the railroad company.

When a woman enters the car and finds the seats all taken, it is no longer considered good form to give up your seat, unless the woman happens to be your wife or mother-in-law.

In alighting from a car do not step off into vacancy before the car has stopped, unless you carry a large life insurance or accident policy, and you feelp ositive that your wife is anxious to become a widow.—Alhambra Advocate.

NORTH GLENDALE

A meeting of the residents and property owners of Casa Verdugo was held at the North Central avenue school house Friday evening to organize a permanent improvement society, the result of a called meeting two weeks previous. Resolutions and by-laws draughted by a committee were read and adopted. The following officers were elected: Mr. Charles H. Toll, president; W. B. Kelley, vice-president; Andrew Robertson, secretary, and O. C. Logan, Jr., treasurer. Mrs. G. E. Larkey, supervising principal of the city garden soldiers in the public schools of Los Angeles, was one of the speakers of the evening, who gave a very interesting and explanatory talk on the planting of California shrubbery wisely, and the 1915 committee on the city beautiful work, outlining several plans for improvement from an educational standpoint. Mr. W. B. Kelley was also an interesting and enthusiastic speaker, who was loudly applauded. The community was divided into eleven sections and eleven directors were appointed to look after their allotted sections. An encouraging number joined the association upon invitation, all delighted with the prospect of a community in the near future that will be a credit to the class of intelligent people who have chosen this locality as their home, so wonderfully endowed with natural beauty.

Services at the Casa Verdugo M. E. church for Sunday, October 11, will be as follows: Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 a. m. Junior League, 2 p. m. Senior Epworth League, 6:45 p. m. Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Rev. Soper, newly appointed pastor, will preach at both morning and evening services. Special music will be rendered at both services and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. W. C. Bender, working manager of the Ahlberg Bearing Company of Los Angeles, motored to North Glendale very recently and was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. John W. West of 1333 Valley View road.

Mr. C. H. Cunningham of 1013 Fairview avenue will delight the congregation of the First Baptist church of Glendale by rendering a baritone solo at the evening service tomorrow.

Mrs. John W. West and two children of 1333 Valley View road spent Thursday in Los Angeles enjoying a downtown luncheon with Mr. West while there.

Mr. Jack Largey of Alhambra is spending the week with his sister, Mrs. Louis Cadawallader, of 1620 Ruth street.

Mrs. O. C. Logan of 809 Melrose avenue entertained as her guest at luncheon Friday Mrs. Mertens of Los Angeles.

Mr. E. F. Tresz, national field secretary of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Jennie Bannister of Los Angeles, were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. I. E. Gould, 611 South Central avenue. Mr. Tresz is a nephew of Mr. Gould.

ONE ACRE NOT ENOUGH

Of late the belief has been fostered by impractical visionaries that an acre is enough to support a family, at least in the mild, almost subtropical portions of the southern part of the West, where the growing season extends throughout the twelve months. Several attempts have been made to put this dream into practice. In fact, thousands of people have been led to dream of economical independence on a plot of ground that could almost be covered by a handkerchief through the slogan—"one acre, one bee and liberty." So widespread did this delusion become that a number of real estate schemes were launched on the theory of the "Little Landers" movement, but not one of these attempts has turned out successfully. It is only the exceptional man, under exceptional circumstances, who can succeed in making a living on property, comparatively two or three city lots in size.—Sunset Magazine.

American commerce with Europe is increasing, despite the war and its restrictions. With America having much that Europe wants and needs, there is pretty sure to be found a way to get across the Atlantic what America has that Europe wants.

California grows almost everything but grouches.

A Message From President Wilson

In a Letter to John T. Waldorf of San Francisco, he Urges the Voters of California to Elect James D. Phelan United States Senator.

PRESIDENT WILSON

JAMES D. PHELAN

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 11, 1914.

My dear Mr. Waldorf:.

I was most gratified to hear of the nomination of former Mayor James D. Phelan for United States Senator. He has been in close touch with the administration in Washington, and has heartily supported the policies which have been inaugurated for the benefit of the people,---policies which, I am pleased to be informed, have met with very general approval.

The work has been well begun, and it is manifestly important for its successful continuance and prosecution that the administration should not be refused support in the Senate and House at the forthcoming election.

Therefore, I appeal not only to Democrats, but to all independent citizens to rally to the support of the men who have expressed a willingness to sustain the administration and carry on the work designed for the benefit of all. It is not so much mere party success that concerns the average citizen as sound and efficient government, and a party can best deserve credit by giving the best service to the country.

Sincerely yours,

Woodrow Wilson

James D. Phelan—

Three times Mayor of San Francisco.

Prevented renewal of franchise of old Geary street railway, San Francisco, thus making present successful municipal line possible.

Appointed first woman who ever held an important public position in San Francisco.

Served as regent of the University of California.

Commissioner to secure re-enactment of the Geary Asiatic Exclusion Law.

Commissioner for Hetch Hetchy legislation before Congress to secure a mountain water supply for the cities around San Francisco Bay.

Commissioner to Europe by appointment of President Wilson to support the United States Government's invitation to foreign countries to participate in the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Secured appropriation of $500,000 for United States building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Declined ambassadorship to one of the great European nations, preferring service at home.

Led in the fight for a new charter for San Francisco, which insured home rule, civil service reform, responsible government and municipal railroads.

Raised standard of pay for laborers in the city employ.

Head of the San Francisco Relief Committee in the disaster of 1906. Appointed by the President custodian of the relief fund aggregating $10,000,000.

Worked and spoke before the Legislature for the enactment of an anti-alien land ownership law.

Experienced, capable and untrammelled, he would have but one client in Washington, the people of his native State.

WOMEN'S WORK TO BE ON DISPLAY AT SAN DIEGO

The work of the women of Southern California will be shown in the woman's exhibit of the seven southern counties in the Southern California building at the Panama-California exposition in San Diego. The woman's auxiliary of the exposition commission has drafted rules to cover the exhibit, which will cover the counties of Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial and San Diego. A general invitation is extended to women of the above counties to submit work in ceramics, bookbinding, fancy and miscellaneous articles.

The following general regulations will govern all entries:

Blanks for entries and information may be secured from the offices of the auxiliary, 420 Chamber of Commerce building, Los Angeles. Chas. L. Wilson is general manager.

Three entries will be received from each intending exhibitor and placed in the exhibition, if favorably passed upon by the auxiliary and the general manager.

Each entry must be the original work of the sender, or exhibitor, whose name will appear on the exhibit.

Works will be received in Los Angeles. Transportation charges must be paid by the sender, in both directions, excepting that the return charges on accepted works will be paid by the commission. All exhibits will be at sender's risk, although all reasonable precautions will be taken to insure safety. Those not accepted will be immediately returned.

An up-state editor, in boosting his candidate, said that "Mr. So-and-So made his remarks so emphatic that he rent the air with his shouts." But the ding-dashed printer set it, "rent the air with his snout," and now there is an awful coldness between the editor and his candidate.
